The Ohio Democratic Convention to Meet To-morrow.

Rice Has the Lead for Governor—Maine Greenbackers.

OHIO DEMOCRATS.

Columbus, O., June 3.—The hotels are fast filling up with delegates to the state democratic and greenback conventions which meet to-morrow. The contest for governor and the democratic ticket overshadow all other interest, and the fight at present is narrowed down to Rice and Bishop, the friends of both candidates claiming success for their champion, but Rice seems to have the greatest strength.

At this hour there is very little talk of a coalition with the greenback men. Senator Thurman and General Ewing have telegraphed their friends that they will not attend the convention.

MAINE GREENBACKERS.

Portland, Me., June 3.—The greenback state convention met to-day. Wm. M. Rust was made permanent chairman. Committees on resolutions and nominations were appointed and a recess taken.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Washington, June 3.—The result of last night's joint meeting of the democratic caucus committees was the adoption of the programme suggested by the sub-committee.

The democrats of both houses will consider the report this afternoon.

NOMINATED.

The president to-day sent to the senate the following: "I nominate George W. McCreary, of Iowa, to be judge of the eighth United States judicial circuit, in place of John F. Dillon, resigned, the resignation to take effect the 1st day of September, 1879, and this nomination to be for the vacancy thus occurring."

CONGRESSIONAL SENATE.

Washington, June 3.—The house bill extending the time for the payment of prepayments on public lands in Minnesota and Dakota, passed.

The house bill to confer certain powers and limitations on commissioners of the District of Columbia, was taken up.

Consideration was interrupted by the expiration of the morning hour.

The house bill establishing post routes was then taken up.

The senate then took up the bill to amend an act relating to certain judicial districts of Texas, and, without action, went into executive session.

HOUSE.

Consideration was resumed of the business of the morning hour, the bill amending the statutes relative to the removal of causes from state to federal courts.

Mr. Townsend (Ill.) having withdrawn his demand for the previous question, Mr. Cox made a speech favoring the repeal of the test oath law.

At the conclusion of Cox's speech the house adjourned, and a democratic caucus was announced for 3 o'clock.

Wireless.

The Jerome Park races were postponed on account of rain.

At Chicago yesterday the democrats elected all their candidates for judgeships by majorities averaging 8,223. Reports from the state at large are scattering, but indicate that where partisan nominations were made the republicans generally elected their candidates by small majorities. The vote was very light.

CHARITY!

The following liberal and charitable challenge was thrown into the teeth of a would-be opposition by the leaders of the trade in our city, and for a long time received no answer. A committee of ladies interested in our hospitals, brought the challenge and challenged to the scratch to-day, and the result can be easily surmised. A board of judges, selected from the best merchants, found in number, after a careful examination of the goods, pronounced the $7.50 Indigo Blue Yacht Cloth Suit, furnished by Sam, Pete & Max, the best sold in the city.

From Philadelphia,

The best known EUROPEAN PHYSICIAN and SPECIALIST, can now be seen at the Special attention given to the treatment of Being fully convinced that his reputation is now established, and that he has already accomplished sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical, that advertising him is a mere medium to call attention to the diseases especially treated by him, and the amount of his success in them, he would now say to all who need and desire his medical services in any of the maladies given above, that they should call on him

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are constipated, sometimes with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLANE, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

The doctor's stay in Fort Wayne must necessarily be brief and the SENTINEL advises all those who contemplate consulting him to do so at once.

The butchers at the market place are in a wrangle respecting the rental of stands which rents they want reduced. The prices now paid range from $20 to $35, according to location in the building, and from $6 to $9 on the outside, and they refuse to pay the prices asked, although they are lower than they have ever been before. What the result of the matter will be is not yet decided.

The SENTINEL was in error in stating that the new laws passed by the last legislature, would take effect on the 1st of June. The laws have to be sent to each county clerk, who distributes them to the proper persons and returns a certificate to the office of the secretary of state. When a certificate is received from every county in the state, the governor issues his proclamation that the laws have taken effect. The counties will probably not all be heard from for some time.

Said a little boy to his mother this morning: "Ma, he-forepaugh goes down town ask him for me to go and see Forepaugh." "My son, Forepaugh has ferce animals with long teeth and 4-paws, there-forepaugh does not wish to have you go to see Forepaugh." "I don't care A-dam Forepaugh, I'm going any how." "My son, it is wicked to speak so and you should there-forepaugh be-forepaugh-lut-ing your lips with such language." "Ma, I guess yer off yer kerbase; yer laborin' under a 'faux pas'."

The grand jury is making a thorough investigation of that alleged attempted rape case, of which some particulars were given in yesterday's SENTINEL. The name of the defendant is Louis Zeis instead of Dice, as the types made it. The affair is said to have taken place on the 24th of April, when Zeis is alleged to have attempted an outrage upon the person of Mrs. Sallie Warn, and, failing in that, to have assaulted her ten year old daughter with a similar purpose. An indictment will probably be returned.

The Reformed Men's Union desire to say that the article appearing in last night's SENTINEL referring to the appointment of a committee by them for the purpose of "spotting" the violators of the liquor law, and presenting their names to the grand jury, together with a list of witnesses, is a mistake as far as the committee working under their direction is concerned. That such a committee does exist for the purpose named they do not deny, but they wish the committee to shoulder the work themselves. That committee is self-constituted, and the work they do is entirely independent of the Reformed Men's Union. The union wishes it distinctly understood, however, that it is ready and willing and will attack anything that comes in its way while in the progress of its work, but it makes its work general, and does not single any men or set of men to make special warfare upon.

AT LAST.

An Appeal to be Taken to the Law.

The Court Street Black Hole Must Go.

The merchants in the business center of the city, and property holders in the vicinity of the calaboose, have decided, if it becomes necessary, to take legal action to compel the city council to abate the nuisance it has so long maintained upon Court street. Money is now being raised to test the matter in the courts. It is a stinging outrage and disgrace that the men who sustain the city government by the payment of heavy taxes on their property and business should be compelled to resort to the courts for the protection of their business interests against an outrageous pest hole maintained in the heart of the city by the legally constituted authorities.

The SENTINEL is informed that a strong team of lawyers has been retained to fight this matter. The aggrieved parties mean business, and as they have given up all hope of action by the city government have decided to take the matter into their own hands without delay.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.

A Little Boy in Nebraska the Victim.

Circumstances of the Sad Affair.

Yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, Otto Gamroth, a five-year-old son of Wm. Gamroth, residing at 367 West Main street, was drowned at the river bend, near the foot of Mechanic street, Nebraska. The body remained in the water about an hour and a half, when it was found about thirty feet from where it was last seen. Great difficulty was experienced in recovering the body, owing to a lack of proper conveniences and the depth of the river, which was about twenty feet at that point. Little Otto, his brother, a sister, and a playmate were in the boat together, playing and pushing each other about, when Otto stumbled against the side of the boat and fell into the stream. The alarm was at once given by the children, but when assistance arrived no sign of the little fellow could be seen.

When the body was recovered, Drs. Anderson and Dennau were on hand. They tried every known means of resuscitation, although they well knew they would be useless. The father was not at home when the accident occurred, being down town. He heard of it, however, before he reached home, and on arriving at the river was only by great exertions of Mr. Fry and others, prevented from jumping into the river in search of his boy. When the body was brought to land, the grief of the father was pitiful to see. He is a tanner by trade and works at Fry's tannery. Coroner Guffney held an inquest last evening and rendered a verdict of accidental drowning, in accordance with the above facts. The boat in which the children were playing has been taken from the river now. It would have been a better idea to have taken it out a week ago.

DR. C. McLANE'S

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND BILIOUS HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are constipated, sometimes alternating with laxity; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant.

The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it.

In fact, he distrusts every remedy.

Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN

CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. C. McLANE'S

LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

bear the signatures of C. McLANE and

FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR.

C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by

Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the same name, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

TUTT'S

PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS

THEY ARE WORTH THEIR

WEIGHT IN GOLD

READ WHAT HE SAYS!

Dr. TUTT—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith).

I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stool, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

REV. A. L. SIMMONS, Louisville, Ky.

A TORPID LIVER

Is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as

Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Dysentery, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice,

Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc.

TUTT'S PILLS exert a powerful influence on the Liver and will cure any of the above troubles, and restore its normal functions.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh,

while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility,

dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose, until a regular movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

PRATT'S PILLS.

Administered to a Couple of Hard Cases.

The Police Court on Wheels.

Police court was delayed considerably this morning owing to a dislocation of the arms of the law.

Mayor Zollinger is located at or about Toledo, Esq. Ryan is sick, Esq. Beeks ditto, Esq. Tannery gone to Columbia City, Esq. Wilkinson broke for Eaton Rapids to try a case of bad health, and Esq. Pratt had a case on trial that wouldn't and couldn't and shouldn't be postponed. It was once thought to write a mitimus on a circus ticket and commit them to Forepaugh for fourteen hours without trial. Better counsel and a busted treasury, however, prevailed, and the prisoners were marched to Esq. Pratt's office to receive sentence of death, and may the Lord have mercy on their souls.

Jacob Grim had been indulging in the ambrosial nectar of the immortal seraphs and O'Connell waited him into the spiritual realms of the olefactory paradise to await the joyful summons of the angels of peace at the mayor's tribunal to receive the just reward of the deeds done in the body. They were numerous. In the first place, Jacob was drunk, d-r-u-n-k, drunk. It was a case of spontaneous intoxication. Jacob imbibed and Grim imbibed, and they both imbibed, and Jacob Grim suffered the collapse. Jacob was not married, and Culverick thought he wasn't a bad man, but the beer was bad—very bad—and it bunged up Jacob so that he wanted to run the Olympic. This wouldn't do, you know; any other day only the day before a circus, and as Jacob made some calculations on attending the said concern, Pratt gave him a fatherly admonition to go thence and do better; he thence.

Leonard Iba went into the "Globe" last night, upset the mustard bottle and raised Cain in several ways. He also intimated his desire to annihilate one of the waiters with a chair. Bayless A. Lewis anticipated his design and gently but firmly took the chair away from him. Subsequently Iba saw Bayless on the street, and, walking up to him, with ingenious frankness grafted a twelve-pound flat size of a ham on his nose. This made Bayless feel bad, and he had him arrested. Leonard said somebody threw him down and tried to kick the sawdust out of his head, and he thought it was Lewis. Pratt remarked $5 and costs would be an appropriate expenditure to begin circus day on and assessed his fine at that figure.

Leonard answered to the second charge of being disorderly by a plea of not guilty. There seemed to be a difference of opinion between the witness and Mr. Iba, and the court held that Leonard must have done something that was not exactly in order, and owing to his previous fine being $5 he would make this one $10 and costs and kind of equalize the matter.

THE GREAT SHOW.

A Big Parade and an Immense Crowd.

Forepaugh Takes the First Premium.

Forepaugh's great show arrived this morning, and the people turned out in crowds to see the elephant. The streets were literally thronged with people, among whom the farmers with their wives, their daughters, their sisters, their cousins and their aunts predominated. About 10 o'clock the procession passed through the principal streets, and was a gorgeous affair. The magnificent chariots, the splendid uniforms and the elaborate decorations made the spectacle a fine one. The elephants, lions and tigers attracted great attention, and the many closed wagons containing wild animals were looked at with a mixture of curiosity and wonder.

The procession over, the crowd flocked to the circus grounds, where the heavy merchants, the elephants, the fine horses, the good looking country girls, etc., etc., were the attractions. A large crowd watched with great interest the elephants drinking in the river.

The performance this afternoon drew a big crowd and gave splendid satisfaction. To-night the last entertainment in this city will be given.

PRATT'S PILLS.

Administered to a Couple of Hard Cases.

The Police Court on Wheels.

Police court was delayed considerably this morning owing to a dislocation of the arms of the law.

Mayor Zollinger is located at or about Toledo, Esq. Ryan is sick, Esq. Beeks ditto, Esq. Tancey gone to Columbia City, Esq. Wilkinson broke for Eaton Rapids to try a case of bad health, and Esq. Pratt had a case on trial that wouldn't and couldn't and shouldn't be postponed. It was once thought to write a mittimus on a circus ticket and commit them to Forepaugh for fourteen hours without trial. Better counsel and a busted treasury, however, prevailed, and the prisoners were marched to Esq. Pratt's office to receive sentence of death, and may the Lord have mercy on their souls.

Jacob Grim had been indulging in the ambrosial nectar of the immortal seraphs and O'Connell wafted him into the spiritual realms of the olefactory paradise to await the joyful summons of the angels of peace at the mayor's tribunal to receive the just reward of the deeds done in the body. They were numerous. In the first place, Jacob was drunk, d-r-u-n-k, drunk. It was a case of spontaneous intoxication. Jacob imbibed and Grim imbibed, and they both imbibed, and Jacob Grim suffered the collapse.

Jacob was not married, and Colerick thought he wasn't a bad man, but the beer was bad so that he wanted to run the Olympic. This wouldn't do, you know; any other day only the day before a circus, and as Jacob made some calculations on attending the said concern, Pratt gave him a fatherly admonition to go thence and do better; he thence.

Leonard Iba went into the "Globe" last night, upset the mustard bottle and raised Cain in several ways. He also intimated his desire to annihilate one of the waiters with a chair. Bayless A. Lewis anticipated his design and gently but firmly took the chair away from him. Subsequently Iba saw Bayless on the street, and, walking up to him, with ingenious frankness grafted a twelve-pound fist the size of a ham on his nose. This made Bayless feel bad, as he had him arrested. Leonard said somebody threw him down and tried to kick the sawdust out of his head, and he thought it was Lewis. Pratt remarked $5 and costs would be an appropriate expenditure to begin circus day on and assessed his fine at that figure.

Leonard answered to the second charge of being disorderly by a plea of not guilty. There seemed to be a difference of opinion between the witness and Mr. Iba, and the court held that Leonard must have done something that was not exactly in order, and owing to his previous fine being $5 he would make this one $10 and costs and kind of equalize the matter.
